BAMES TURNS TIDE OF BASEBALL GAME

Salt Lake Team Is Too Many for Occidentals; 2500 People Are Present.

The Salt Lake baseball tourn defeated the Occidentals Sunday afternoon on the Walker field, by a score of 5 to 2, in one of the most exciting games of the season. The hall was hit hard by both teams, yet the good fielding kept down the hits. No natter whether the ball was batted to the utifield or ground liners to the infield. they all seemed to look alike to the playther all scenes to hole a make the players. The Salt Lake team played a much more steady game than the colored boys.
Eight hits, a sacrifice, assisted by five errors, helped the winners' score, which should have been but two runs instead of five. Two thousand five hundred people my the game. Hummel pitched a star game, and while mw the game.

Hummel pitched a star game, and while he struck out only three men, his opponents hit the ball in three linnings only. Black got a hit the first time up, and in the second iming Middleton singled and Langford bingled for two sacks. A Gun had a splendid opportunity for a double play, but threw the ball away, which allowed the only runs scored by the Occidentals. In the fifth inning the Occidentals for three clean hits, but were unsale to reach the home plate. Langford tited to steal home while Beckiey was poing to second from first. Lumley fired the ball to Castro on second as a "coaxt". Langford bit and came home and eas put out by an immediate return of the kall to Lumley, putting the side out. In the third inning Hummel threw only four balls. Hawkins grounded to first on the first ball pitched, Langley hit the dist ball to Hummel, who put him out at first, and J. Burns filed out in center, batting at the second ball. In the last inning the first two men up were put out then the rain came, and the game-bad to be stopped.

All the men on the Sait Lake team payed good ball. Hummel had five assists and Stewart, on second base, had four of the hardest chances in the garmet. sight base, each one of which ordinarily sould have been good for a bit. Margetts and Ostler were the only two men on the team who scored two hits each, Hummel. Castre and A. Gunn getting no hits and the other men securing one hit each. Castro and A. Gunn getting no hits and be other men securing one hit each. The Sait Lake team was shut out in the first inning without a hit. In the second inning two, hits and a sacrifice very good for one run. In the fourth inning a base on balls and a single were good for one run, which tied the score, to 2. The team was then shut out for the fifth and sixth innings. A two-base hit in the second inning, following a single made by Stewart, brought in a ta, which virtually wen the game. Three errors in the next and last inning is the colored boys, and a safe hit by Osiler brought in two runs.

GANS GOES TO COAST TO TRIM BAT NELSON | Special to The Tribune.

Special to The Tribune. OGDEN, June 7.—Joe Gans, the colored puglilist, and peer of them all in his class, was in Ogden for a few minutes Sunday afternoon on his way to the coast, where he will go into training for his forty-five-round bout with "Battling" his forty-five-round bout with "Battling" Nelson.

Gans was met at the station by "Cyclone" Johnny Thompson, who is in the city, and they shook hands for the first time. Although they have both been present as principals and spectators at many fights, they never made each other's acquaintance until Sunday.

Of course, the first thing they discussed was Unhoiz. Gans having recently defeated the husky South African and Thompson expecting to take him on soon, made the discussion of the "Boer" of mutual interest. That Joe Gans has a good opinion of the fighting abilities of Unhoiz was made evident when he said: "He ain't the softest proposition I ever tackled by a good deal. I'll tell you, and he kept me guessing by his rushes for a time, until I sot next to his tactics." Both discussed the Boer's style of fighting and agreed that he was a puzzle until the solution is reached by the man opposing him.

Gans asid that he expected to win the fight with Nelson in less than the limit, but he would come.

Had Lumley been given charge of the team two weeks ago, Manager Gimlin, of the Ogden team, would not have secured the best local players, and, while Lumley regrets that this has been done, he says he knows of some good men whom he can secure that will be just as good as those that have gone to Ogden and Murray.

Lumley understands the game and ought to make a good manager. He is well-liked by the boys and can get the work out of them, and he is getting into good shape for fast work himself behind the bat, where he will play in the league team.
